

Watoto

Spirit-Led Woman

PRAYER GUIDE

watotochurch.com

Spirit-Led, Spirit-Empowered

Living, Serving, and Advancing God's Purpose by the Power of the Holy Spirit

Theme text: Zechariah 4:6

"So he said to me, 'This is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel: 'Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit,' says the Lord Almighty.'"

In a world that celebrates human strength, influence, and ability, God reminds His people that true victory, lasting fruit, and kingdom impact do not come solely through effort but through the work and power of the Holy Spirit. Zechariah 4:6 declares a divine principle that governs our lives as believers—that progress in God's purposes is never achieved by human might or natural power, but by the Spirit of the Lord.

God is raising a people who are not driven by self-reliance, but by divine dependence. People who understand that spiritual transformation, Christ-like living, and effective ministry flow from a life led and empowered by the Holy Spirit. To be Spirit-led is to walk in step with God's will. To be Spirit-empowered is to live beyond our natural limitations.

As we journey together in prayer, we are responding to God's invitation to know the Holy Spirit personally, yield to His work within us, and rely on His power through us. The Holy Spirit is not merely an influence—we acknowledge Him as God, present and active in our lives, shaping our character, convicting our hearts, and conforming us into the image of Christ.

This season calls us to move from self-effort to surrender, from striving to trusting, and from human strength to divine enablement. The Holy Spirit empowers us to live holy lives, walk in righteousness, and boldly participate in God's mission of drawing people to Christ.

God is calling us to be:

- DEPENDENT on the Spirit rather than our own strength
- RESPONSIVE to His leading and conviction
- TRANSFORMED into Christlikeness through His sanctifying work
- EMPOWERED to serve, witness, and advance the Kingdom

As we pray, we are not relying on might or power; we are aligning ourselves with the Spirit of the living God. We open our hearts for renewal, our lives for transformation, and our hands for ministry, confident that what God begins by His Spirit, He will also complete by His Spirit.

tinyurl.com/SISTERHOODPRAYS

Join us for corporate prayers during the week from 8pm to 9pm using this link or Scan the QR Code.

Date	Time	Campus In-charge
Mon 23 Feb	8pm - 9pm	Central (DT, Bugolobi, Kansanga)
Tue 24 Feb	8pm - 9pm	Remote (Gulu & Juba)
Thu 26 Feb	8pm - 9pm	East (Bweyogerere & Mukono)
Fri 27 Feb	8pm - 9pm	Homes (Suubi, Bbira & Laminadera)
Sat 28 Feb	8pm - 9pm	North (Ntinda & Nakwero)
Sun 1 Mar	8pm - 9pm	West (Kyengerera & Nansana)
Mon 2 Mar	8pm - 9pm	South (Lubowa & Entebbe)
Tue 3 Mar	8pm - 9pm	Remote (Mbarara & Jinja)
Thu 5 Mar	8pm - 9pm	Programs (Family & Counselling, Children, Youth & Young Adults, Cell Family, Marketplace)
Fri 6 Mar	8pm - 9pm	MTL & PTL (Vernita & Martha)

Week One

Knowing The Holy Spirit God With Us And In Us

Before we can live a Spirit-empowered life, we must first know the Holy Spirit personally. God's work in and through us begins with relationship. The Holy Spirit is not an abstract force or a distant influence; He is God, present with us and living within us.

This first week of prayer is an invitation to intimacy. As we pray, we are asking the Lord to move us from awareness to relationship, from knowledge to fellowship, and from independence to dependence on the Holy Spirit. We desire not just to experience His power, but to know His presence.

As we pray, may our hearts become more sensitive to the Holy Spirit, our lives more yielded to His leading, and our faith firmly anchored in the truth that God is with us and in us by His Spirit.

Day 1:

Thanksgiving For The Gift Of The Holy Spirit

Before we seek power, direction, or transformation, we begin with gratitude. Thanksgiving aligns our hearts with truth and positions us to recognise God's grace already at work in our lives. One of the greatest gifts God has given us is His Spirit, His very presence with us and in us.

The Holy Spirit is not something we earn; He is a gift freely given by God to every believer. Today, we pause to thank God that we are not left alone, not abandoned, and not powerless. We give thanks that God Himself dwells with us by His Spirit. As we thank Him, we acknowledge that everything we are and everything we will become flows from His presence, not our strength.

Text: Luke 11:13

"If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

Prayer Direction:

- Give thanks for the gift of the Holy Spirit.
- Celebrate God's presence in your life.
- Thank Him for salvation, guidance, comfort, and help through His Spirit.

Day 2:

Acknowledging

The Holy Spirit As God

A Spirit-led life begins with right understanding. The Holy Spirit is not an influence, a force, or a feeling; He is God. When we acknowledge Him as God, our posture shifts from control to surrender, from familiarity to reverence.

Today, we honour the Holy Spirit as Lord. We recognise His authority, His holiness, and His rightful place in our lives. We lay down every form of self-rule and invite Him to take His place as the One who leads, directs, and governs us.

Text: 2 Corinthians 3:17

“Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.”

Prayer Direction:

- Acknowledge the Holy Spirit as God over your life.
- Repent of self-dependence.
- Invite Him to rule, lead, and have full authority in every area.

Day 3:

Awareness Of God With Us

By His Spirit

God never intended for us to walk this journey alone. Through the Holy Spirit, God is present with us—guiding us through uncertainty, strengthening us in weakness, and comforting us in every season.

Many times, God’s presence is not absent—we are simply unaware. Today, we pray for heightened awareness of the Holy Spirit with us in our daily lives: in our homes, workplaces, relationships, and decisions.

Text: John 14:16-17

“And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Advocate to help you and be with you forever—the Spirit of truth.”

Prayer Direction:

- Ask God to open your spiritual eyes to His presence.
- Pray for sensitivity to the Holy Spirit throughout your day.
- Invite Him into every moment.

Day 4:

Honouring God In Us

The Indwelling Spirit

The wonder of the Gospel is not only that God is with us, but that He lives in us. The Holy Spirit has made our lives His dwelling place. This truth calls us to live with honour, reverence, and intentional surrender.

Today, we reflect on the sacredness of our lives as temples of the Holy Spirit. We ask God to cleanse, realign, and sanctify us so that our lives reflect His holiness and glory.

Text: 1 Corinthians 6:19

“Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God?”

Prayer Direction:

- Thank God for dwelling in you.
- Ask for grace to honour Him with your body, thoughts, and choices.
- Surrender areas that grieve the Holy Spirit.

Day 5:

Dependence On The Holy Spirit, Not Human Strength

God's work is never accomplished by human might or power. Zechariah 4:6 reminds us that progress in God's purposes comes only by His Spirit. Today, we intentionally lay down self-effort, striving, and reliance on human ability.

We confess that without the Holy Spirit, we can do nothing of eternal value. We choose dependence over pride and surrender over striving.

Text: Zechariah 4:6

"Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit," says the Lord Almighty."

Prayer Direction:

- Renounce self-reliance.
- Declare your dependence on the Holy Spirit.
- Ask God to teach you to lean fully on His Spirit in every area of life.

Day 6:

Inviting The Holy Spirit To Shape Our Inner Life

The Holy Spirit works first within us before He works through us. He desires to shape our hearts, renew our minds, and form Christ in us. Today, we open our inner lives to His transforming work.

We invite Him to deal with attitudes, habits, and patterns that do not reflect Christ. We submit to His loving conviction and sanctifying power.

Text: 2 Corinthians 3:18

“And we all... are being transformed into His image with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.”

Prayer Direction:

- Invite the Holy Spirit to search your heart.
- Ask Him to transform you into Christlikeness.
- Yield to His work of renewal and change.

Day 7:

Commitment To Walk In Fellowship With The Holy Spirit

Knowing the Holy Spirit is not a one-time encounter; it is a daily walk. God desires fellowship with us, not occasional visitation. Today, we make a fresh commitment to walk closely with the Holy Spirit.

We choose a lifestyle of listening, yielding, and responding to His leading. We commit to building a consistent, intimate relationship with Him.

Text: 2 Corinthians 13:14

“May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.”

Prayer Direction:

- Commit to daily fellowship with the Holy Spirit.
- Ask for grace to walk in obedience and sensitivity.
- Invite Him to lead your life continually.

Week Two

The Work Of the Holy Spirit
In Us

Conviction • Sanctification • Holiness • Righteousness

Day 8:

The Holy Spirit Awakens Our Hearts

Conviction

Before God changes our behaviour, He touches our hearts. Conviction is not condemnation; it is the loving work of the Holy Spirit drawing us back to God's truth. Through conviction, the Spirit reveals what does not align with Christ and invites us into repentance and restoration.

Today, we allow the Holy Spirit to search us gently and honestly. We welcome His light, trusting that His conviction always leads us toward life, freedom, and growth in Christ.

Text: John 16:18

"When He comes, He will convict the world of sin, righteousness and judgment."

Prayer Direction:

- Ask the Holy Spirit to search your heart.
- Repent where He brings conviction.
- Thank Him for His grace that restores, not condemns.

Day 9:

Responding To The Spirit's Conviction

Repentance

Conviction calls for a response. Repentance is not merely feeling sorry—it is a turning of the heart toward God. The Holy Spirit empowers us to let go of sin and walk in obedience, not by our strength, but by His grace.

Today, we respond humbly and willingly to the Spirit's prompting, trusting that God's mercy meets us when we turn to Him.

Text: Acts 3:19

"Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out."

Prayer Direction:

- Confess and turn away from anything the Spirit highlights.
- Ask for grace to walk in obedience and freedom.

Day 10:

Being Made More Like Christ

Sanctification

Sanctification is the ongoing work of the Holy Spirit, shaping us into the likeness of Christ. This is not an instant process, but a daily surrender. As we yield to Him, He refines our character, renews our minds, and transforms our desires.

Today, we submit to the Spirit's shaping work, trusting that He who began a good work in us will be faithful to complete it.

Text: Acts 4:31

"They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly."

Prayer Direction:

- Ask the Holy Spirit to give you opportunities to share the Gospel.
- Pray for boldness and clarity in sharing Jesus.
- Invite Him to work through you to draw others to Christ.

Day 11:

Putting Sin To Death

By The Spirit

Through the power of the Holy Spirit, believers are no longer helpless against sin. What we could not overcome in our own strength, God empowers us to overcome by His Spirit. Victory over sin is not achieved through self-effort, but through daily dependence on the Holy Spirit.

Today, we acknowledge areas where we have struggled and choose to rely on the Spirit's power to break sinful patterns and walk in freedom. As we yield to Him, the Spirit enables us to live the new life God has given us in Christ.

Text: Romans 8:13

For if you live by its dictates, you will die. But if through the power of the Spirit you put to death the deeds of your sinful nature,[a] you will live.

Prayer Direction:

- Identify areas of sinful patterns or weakness.
- Ask the Holy Spirit for strength to overcome, to walk in obedience.
- To live in the freedom Christ has provided.

Day 12:

Yielding Daily To The Work Of The Spirit

A transformed life is sustained by daily surrender. The work of the Holy Spirit in us continues as we consistently yield our hearts, choices, and actions to His leading. Walking by the Spirit is not a one-time decision, but a continual posture of dependence and obedience.

Today, we commit ourselves afresh to live Spirit-led lives—choosing submission over self-will and sensitivity over resistance—trusting that as we yield daily, the Holy Spirit will faithfully complete His transforming work in us.

Text: Galatians 5:16

So I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh

Prayer Direction:

- Commit to daily surrender to the Holy Spirit.
- Ask for grace to walk in obedience, sensitivity, and dependence on His leading in every area of life.